How/where did you find out about this program?

Part I:

With this application, include both a cover letter and a résumé. In the letter, please introduce yourself, express your interests, and explain why you are interested in our training program.

Part II:

Answer questions listed below on separate paper.

1. What farm or garden experience have you had?
2. What do you expect to gain from taking part in a student position in organic/biodynamic gardening and production agriculture?
3. List names and contact information for two references (teachers, employers, etc., not relatives) whom we may contact regarding your past work and educational experience.
4. Is farming or an agriculture-related profession a career path you are choosing?
5. On a scale of 1 – 10, with 10 being the most fluent, rate your English language skill.

Part III:

Indicates term(s) you are applying for:

Pre-Season Term	February 3 - April 10, 2009	Tuition $1,500
Spring Term	April 14 - June 19, 2009	Tuition $1,500
Summer Term	June 23 - August 28, 2009	Tuition $1,500
Fall Term	September 1 - Nov. 6, 2009	Tuition $1,500

Part IV:Student Housing

Check here if interested in applying for on-site student housing. Student housing fee is $625 per term. Housing is limited and is filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Part V:

I commit to paying the full tuition. The tuition is payable in full two weeks prior to your start date. If payment arrangements are needed, contact the registrar. Fourth-term students are eligible for financial assistance; details provided upon request.

I commit to providing: 1. Information concerning my personal health insurance coverage upon acceptance, and 2. Either proof of citizenship or a valid visa.

All information provided is true, to the best of my knowledge.
